S.F. Chronicle – 2/4/92

Commingling

Editor — I saw Oliver Stone's "JFK" last week. I don't know for sure, who killed President Kennedy, and since I'm 73 I'll probably never know; though I suspect that Lee Harvey Oswald didn't act alone.

But if I am to condone the reckless commingling of fact and fiction that Mr. Stone employs then I might as well stop reading The Chronicle and start reading The National Enquirer.
